COL. FREEMAN THORPE, INTERNATIONALLY KNOWN ARTIST, DEAD

A sad shock both nationally and locally, was the announcement of the death of Colonel Freeman Thorpe, noted artist and painter of prominent Americans, who passed away early Friday morning in Brainerd from complications arising from old age.

Colonel Thorpe was born in Geneva, Ohio, June 14th, 1844. Early in life he displayed the artistic temperament, first beginning as a photographer, but soon taking up the use of oils and the brush.

He was married to Miss Orlena A. Eggleston on August 25th, 1865. To this union was born a family of four children, Clark Leonard and Mrs. W. Rowland, both deceased, Mrs. Gerry Heald, of Hubert, Minn., and Miss Anne Thorpe, living at home. There are also four grandchildren.

Mrs. Thorpe preceded her husband in death three years ago.

Mr. Thorpe was a cavalryman during the Civil War, and was closely connected with the G. A. R., being a member of the Duluth Post.

He was always deeply interested in politics, and for eight years was republican leader in the Ohio House of Representatives. It is interesting to note that Colonel Thorpe had charge of the campaign of James A. Garfield, his personal friend, in Mr. Garfield's race for U. S. Senator from Ohio against Alonzo Taft, father of former President William Howard Taft, who was his father's campaign manager. Garfield won the election, but never took his seat in Congress, on account of being put in the presidential campaign and elected to that high office.

But it is as an artist and painter that Colonel Thorpe is best known. During Grant's administration he was given a studio on the roof of the capitol building at Washington, where he painted most of his celebrated portraits of America's foremost statesmen. From that time until a very few years ago, he retained his Washington connections, going there every winter to place on canvas the likeness of one great man or another.

Among his best known paintings are those of Abraham Lincoln, General U. S. Grant, William McKinley and many others who helped to make American history since the Civil war. Most of these portraits were made at the instigation of Congress, and hang on the walls of the Nation's capitol. Several paintings were made of Andrew Carnegie and other captains of industry, but most of Mr. Thorpe's talents were centered upon men in the public eye from a political standpoint.

Colonel Thorpe had the unique distinction of being acquainted with each of the presidents from the time of Abraham Lincoln down to the present administration, and has painted the portraits of most of these gentlemen. There are more paintings hanging in the Government buildings in Washington from the brush of Colonel Freeman Thorpe than from any other American artist.

Twenty-seven years ago, Mr. Thorpe came to Minnesota, purchasing some fifteen hundred acres of Crow Wing county land at Hubert, where he has done much to build up the community, and where he has always maintained his homestead, improving the property and farming on an intensive scale. It has always been his boast that the agricultural ideas of Lincoln were applicable to this section, and had the satisfaction of proving them out in a number of instances, devoting quite a little of his property to experimental usages in this connection.

Colonel Thorpe's last appearance in public occurred the past winter when he gave an address on Abraham Lincoln, his favorite theme, at the First Methodist church, under the auspices of the Brainerd Lions club. At that time Mr. Thorpe had a number of his most famous paintings on exhibition in the church, which were viewed by many Brainerd people, who knew much of this artist's work, but had never seen any of the portraits.

GILDED CHAINS

Advertisements now appearing in daily papers concerning the beauties of pension systems as conducted by corporations analyzed and the result set forth. In one paragraph a president of a road gives away the whole scheme and shows it is but gilding the chains which are to hold men on the job and cause them to scab on those who follow, even though pensioned.

The pension system as in vogue on railroads, and imposed on the employees by the companies, is a delusion and a snare. Any way you look at it from the employee standpoint, it is but a gilding on a chain intended to hold men at their jobs under unfair and unjust conditions and piling wages—and the employee pays for the gilding. Make no mistake about that. Employers are not even paying for the chain or the gilding. Workers pay it all. Pay it at such times as this in loss of self respect—betrayal of their fellows who are fighting a battle for right and justice—or they lose it all.

A president of a road, in the Middie West, gives the whole scheme away in a short paragraph, part of an advertisement in the dailies of that region, which reads as follows: "That the interest of the pensioned employees and their loyalty to the company can be counted upon has been evidenced many times by their readiness to return to active service and render such assistance as they can in times of emergency."

"Readiness to return," is good, so good it is rich. You're pensioned, off the job and supposedly, turned out to grass on an abundance of not less than $25 per month. You are to live your remaining years away from the muck and mud of work, surrounded by every comfort and a raft of luxuries, free from worry, trouble and toil, and then—you wake up and find that, after the receipt of notices and ill disguised threats and importunities, you are pulsating with a "readiness" to put your neck in the collar, settle down in the harness and pull the dear old machine out of the ruck and mud into which the company has run it.

No thought of the deep, luscious grass in the pension meadow, bordered by running, purling brook and shaded by leafy tree, keeps you from being coltish and frisky as you take up the pull and slack, acquire a choice lot of collar galls, a few spavins and a mess of heaves. You just naturally quit your quiet haven of rest, so graciously provided (by you) out of the innate and magnificent generosity of the company, and beat it for the old machine stuck in the mud of bullheadedness by the ones who pat you on the back—and then forget you—when you show up.

You do it readily, willingly and cheerfully. Yes, you do—not. You do it because you're scared into doing it. Driven to it and urged to it by the fear of resentment on the part of the management and also because of the monotony of the pension of $25 per. The monotony and hopelessness of trying to exist on that measly sum and the desire to make a little extra money—if you're that kind of a man, but you are not that kind. You look at things as they are.

LOYD GEORGE CONSIDERS FORMATION OF CENTER PARTY

IN A SPEECH AT LEEDS TOMORROW, LATTER WILL OUTLINE POLICY

WHILE LAW MAKES PREPARATIONS, COALITION MINISTER REMAINS IN CONTROL

London, Oct. 20.—Andrew Bonar Law started to choose his ministers today as Lloyd George, premier who resigned yesterday, considered the formation of a new center party to combine all liberals under his leadership. In a speech which he expected to give tomorrow at Leeds, Lloyd George will announce his policy.

Law today consulted leaders of the unionist party whose bolt from the coalition party caused the downfall of Lloyd George who had been at the head of the government the last six years.

Shortly Law is to give definite information to the king if chosen leader of the unionists. The latter will hold meetings either Saturday or Sunday.

While these preparatory arrangements are under way, the coalition ministry remains in control. If Andrew Bonar Law succeeds in forming a government, it is considered probable that a general election will follow in January or February. Some are of the opinion that it may be held at an earlier date.

Law's Task Called Difficult

It was considered improbable by some observers that Bonar Law will be able to form a ministry because to be successful he would have to command a majority in the house of commons.

This would mean that many liberals would have to vote in favor of Bonar Law, a conservative.

Austen Chamberlain also has called a caucus of the conservative supporters of the premier.

At these conferences it will be decided what attitude is to be taken toward a successor of Lloyd George.

In case Bonar Law is unable to bring the various factions together to form a ministry, it is possible that King George might summon Lloyd George to form a new government.

George E. White arrived in the city this morning to attend the convention and to look after his work as head of the Near East Relief drive in this state. Mr. White has spent much of his life in Constantinople, being a Congregational minister, and has accumulated a fund of first-hand information regarding conditions in the Near East.

Over two hundred delegates registered at convention headquarters Thursday, the opening day, and Mr. Garrison confidently expects even a larger number to arrive today. A great many are coming in automobiles, some from quite a distance.

The Church Publishing House has a fine exhibit of religious books and supplies, also programs, entertainments, etc., for use in connection with Sunday School work. The exhibit is in charge of Miss Downer, of Chicago, and is creating a great deal of interest.

Dr. Bert E. Smith had the misfortune of becoming ill upon arrival in Brainerd yesterday, and was taken to a local hospital, where he is getting along nicely. It is hoped that he will be able to attend the Saturday meetings.

The work of the convention really began Thursday evening with Rev. J. Kirkwood Craig's address on "The Biggest Job in America." The evening program opened with Brainerd's welcome, given by Mayor Frank E. Little.

The remaining days of the convention will be crammed full of important work, and delegates are as excited not to miss a single number of the good things that are on the program.

WRECK AT WILLISTON KILLS TWO TRAINMEN

Williston, N. D., Oct. 20.—A wreck of the east bound local at Todd, seven miles west of here, resulted in the death of Engineer Hoffman and brakeman Holloway. Two transients boarding the train at Snowden and not accounted for, are believed to be under the wreckage.

The engine and 13 cars loaded with wheat left the rails and went into the ditch. It is suspected that the switch may have been tampered with. The switch light indicated "clear", but the switch itself was set for the passing track.

Heroic Method to Learn English

Fargo, Oct. 20.—It was the heroic method of learning English that brought Daniel Carbonell, Manantato, N. D., to be the first Filipino student at North Dakota Agricultural college.

Graduate of a normal school in Manila he came to Cosmopolis, Wash., as an industrial worker to learn English customs and language. Then someone suggested that the best way to acquire fluent English was to enter further inland to some institution where there would be none of his countrymen.

SKIN DISEASE

Any skin disease such as acne, eczema, psoriasis, etc., is very unpleasant, but if the organs of elimination are working properly there will be no skin disease. If there is subluxation (displacement) of the vertebrae (small bones of the spine), causing nerve pressure and preventing the vital force from flowing freely to the kidneys, the latter will not function properly and the excretion will be thrown off by the pores of the skin, causing eczema and similar disorders. TRY CHIROPRACTIC VERTEBRAL ADJUST-

COUNTY TEACHERS IN SESSION TODAY

State Planned Meeting of Instructors and School Boards in Big Meeting

SUPPER AT Y. M. C. A. TONIGHT

100 Teachers Present to Discuss Plans and Problems of the Coming Year

The Crow Wing county teachers and school board members are in session today in a combination meeting at the Chamber of Commerce. This is a state planned meeting, called about six weeks after the opening of the rural schools, to take up questions and problems of the teachers that may have come up during the first of their school year.

George L. Selke, inspector of rural schools in this state will be in attendance and will instruct the teachers and school boards along the lines of their work.

Prof. M. D. Agarn, superintendent of the Crosby-Ironton high school is to speak, and J. Kirkwood Craig, will give a strong address.

Supper has been arranged for the teachers at the Y. M. C. A. at 6 o'clock Friday evening.

Saturday morning there will be a meeting at the high school building for the teachers alone. At this meeting Mr. Selke will speak on buildings and equipment, Miss Blanche Atkin, of St. Cloud will address the teachers on primary work, E. G. Roth, county agent, on project work, and the county nurse will outline her plans for the coming season.

There are over one hundred teachers in attendance at these meetings and a great deal of interest is being displayed. County Superintendent Irma Hartley states that every school in the county is well supplied with teachers. There has not been the difficulty experienced in getting good teachers this year that has troubled school board and superintendents for the past three or four seasons. Teachers are not at such a premium as they have been here-to-fore.

STATE HIGHWAYS TO BE DESCRIBED

Minneapolis Tribune to Run Series in Sunday Edition on History of Road Making in State

CROW WING COUNTY'S SYSTEM

To be Covered in an Article by County Highway Engineer Walter M. Murphy of Brainerd

Much interest is being taken in the forward march of progress in highway construction work throughout the state of Minnesota. People are anxious to know just how the money they pay in the form of vehicle tax is being spent, and what benefits are being derived therefrom.

Minnesota's trunk highway system, conceived and now building under the Babcock plan, is the state's greatest single undertaking. The schools, penal and reformatory institutions, the parks and all other major establishments under state control, are the outcome of development over a long period of years.

The highway program is the result of a concrete and complete plan, every detail of which was determined before it was submitted to the legislature. Practically the entire corps of engineers and patrolmen, numbering away up in the hundreds now engaged in carrying out the program was tentatively chosen before the law was passed. They went to work in all parts of the state the day after the governor signed the measure legalizing the trunk highway plan.

Realizing the interest that is taken throughout the state in regard to this great project, the Minneapolis Tribune will run a series of articles in its Sunday edition, entitled, "A History of Road Making in the North Star State". These articles will begin with the early trails of the fur traders and carry the history of the highways down to the present with its 6,800 miles of trunk highway system in Minnesota.

The articles will describe in detail the history and resources of the country and towns through which they pass. In this connection County Highway Engineer Walter M. Murphy, has been designated to write up the development of the roads in Crow Wing county, and residents of this section will be much interested in his contribution to the series which begin in the near future.

ROTARY CLUB HEARS NOTABLES

The Rotary club had an exceptionally interesting meeting at their noon luncheon Friday. Dr. George E. White, of the Near East Relief Drive of Minnesota, spoke of his life in Constantinople and Asia Minor. Dr. White has been president of a Christian college in that section for some years.

President D. W. Kurtz, of McPherson college, McPherson, Kansas, gave a short address which held his hearers attention with unusual interest. Dr. Kurtz is in Brainerd in connection with the Sunday school convention, and brings a fund of experience to the meetings.

The H. F. Michael Co. is announcing another anniversary through the columns of the Brainerd Daily Dispatch today. This firm has been the most consistent users of the Dispatch's advertising columns during the years of their existence.

Daily for years there has been change of copy, plus also care and ability shown in presenting the store news in the best possible shape and manner. To have the Dispatch appear without an H. F. Michael Co. advertisement would be missing a feature of the paper.

There are several features in their advertisement today meriting unusual attention. They announce prizes for the woman or miss writing the best article about their store.

There is a Children's Day planned and there will be a big birthday cake to be cut in good old birthday fashion. The details of these things are announced in their advertisement.

PROPOSED CHARTER AMENDMENT

The following editorial appeared in last week's Journal Press, and so accurately reflects the views of the Dispatch that we reproduce it in full:

Why Make the Water & Light Board a Political Issue

At a special election on November 7th, the voters of Brainerd will have a chance to amend the charter. Two amendments will be presented. One amendment is designed to make a change in the manner of composing the Water & Light Board.

We consider that the amendment is "full of dynamite"; it does not have as its effect merely making members elective instead of appointive, but it will introduce the greatest amount of perpetual disturbance and inefficiency that can be pictured, and lead to endless harm to the utilities themselves and discredit to the city. That would be a deplorable state of affairs. That being the case, why then is this amendment presented? Why is an amendment necessary?

To begin with, we are emphatic in our assertion that the change is not due to any basic necessity resulting from physical conditions or mismanagement but is due to a desire on the part of a group to self-appointed dictators to make it easier for themselves and their followers to become members of this board, and then, perhaps, administer the department to advance their personal desires rather than promote the welfare of the city at large. And here are a few reasons why we believe this to be true.

The present board consists of three members, one appointed by the mayor every two years. The term of office is six years. Our present board consists of Carl Zapffe, A. A. Weidemann, and A. A. Arnold. Mr. Weidemann is the oldest member in point of service, having served ten years; appointed first by R. A. Henning, Mayor Little re-appointed him about four years ago. Carl Zapffe, appointed by former Mayor R. A. Beise, is serving his second term, having been reappointed about two years ago by Mayor Little. Mr. Arnold has not finished his first term; he was appointed by former Mayor Beise to fill the vacancy caused by the untimely death of R. B. Withington. Of course all know that labor is responsible for the petition to change the board, and labor sponsored Mayor Little. We find no fault with Mayor Little. Mayor Little appointed two of the three members on the board, and no better have ever served the city of Brainerd in any capacity. Does anyone now charge these two appointees with incompetency? If these men are incompetent, or neglectful as regards the city, why does not the mayor tell his appointees that they are incompetent and ask them to resign? We believe that every commissioner is of such high personal character that a request by the mayor to resign and when based on any indication of incompetency or gross neglect will be responded to quicker than it takes to write these words. But the mayor has been in a position to watch the work of these men and we feel confident that he knows of no incompetency, and, on the contrary, he must appreciate what a wonderful benefit their untiring efforts have been in Brainerd. How can an elected board of five be an improvement, unless to promote selfish motives? Is selfishness or greed to rule at the bottom of this? Is personal enmity to be gratified by changing our charter?

Does it seem reasonable to suppose that Mr. Weidemann with his ten years of service and Mr. Zapffe with his seven years of service are doing this work because of the $50 per year that they receive as pay? No. These men are interested in this city; they are interested in their work; they are inclined to say, love their work. These men undertook a big task six years ago, and they are not the men likely to quit their task until their work is done. That is the kind we want on our board; that is the kind which is rare; that is the kind that does not run for office on election day and ask for votes, either to represent labor or business. A public utility board is no place to practice partisanship or politics. It should be freed from politics.

What is it that labor wants that is so essential to it and has not been obtained, and can only get by changing from 3 to 5 and from appointive to elective officials? We fail to see it. We do not want puppets to run our public utilities. We want high-grade men and fearless men. Was not the present board the first to grant the eight-hour day, and what is more, the regular schedule of pay for union men and classified labor? Did its predecessors ever give labor such as these? Not one bit. And the present board did not cower to labor either. It did what it believed was just. Is the working force making any serious complaint; no, not if left alone, but agitators have tried to create strife. These members have conducted all their meetings publicly, their records are well kept and open to the closest scrutiny; has an investigation been made; what has been discovered; where and what is the complaint. We know that the board members have many just complaints against numerous citizens because of their unmanly and often niggardly conduct, and sometimes dishonest, too. Naturally, when the board takes a firm stand against such practices and such people, it creates personal enmity. Perhaps the board members may have more to complain about—if they wanted to, than the petitioners of the amendment.

To talk about electing 5 men as being more democratic is all bunk. We would sooner cast our lot with three good men than five "democratic" men not so good. None can convince us that a man must be elected to be democratic; it democracy really is the issue. We predict that the present members, either individually or in the aggregate, present a higher level of accomplishments and training than any five men that will ever run for office if the amendment is adopted. Mr. Arnold has a record as a successful man, conducting his own business in a business-like way, and capable of judging right from wrong. Mr. Weidemann has a record as a successful mechanic, and with capabilities that have made him valuable in other lines of endeavor, and always of alert mind, and insistent on a square deal for all. Mr. Zapffe has been trained practically and technically in a wide variety of work which fits him for either the mechanical or the financial side of public utility work, and is absolutely independent and unbiased in his thoughts. These men stand high as a group. They have pulled Brainerd out of a hole, a mud-hole, a disease hole; they have worked up the whole of the present water-works system, which is a wonderful achievement, and in times of war when many things went wrong in their department they stuck to their posts.

No group of Water and Light commissioners has ever stayed by its job as has this group. Examine the record, co-wit:

(* Served as presidents.
That list is worthy of your closest study. Who and where are the men who resigned their commissions? What improvement will the amendment create.

We do not hesitate to state that the guiding hand in the conduct of this board has been its president. He is fitted for leadership. Mistakes all make, but we have not found serious mistakes. He has had the courage and energy to put things through and fearlessly face his opponents. We have no complaint to make about having been compelled to accept for Brainerd a most modern, efficient, and commendable water system now being visited and copied by many other small cities. Our light system has been made over. Orderliness is the rule. We can never avoid leadership. If one man of the three has been the leader, one of five must be a leader, but leaders trained technically and practically do not run for such an office unless the salary is commensurate, not $50 per year.

What then is wrong with these men personally or as a board; what is wrong with their achievements; what is wrong because only three men constitute the board. Ah yes, three men appointed can only represent all wards whereas five men elected represent only one ward each. Presumably five elected ward representatives believe of first importance to be whether a water main in the Tenth Ward, let us say, should be 6-inch or 8-inch regardless of what size other pipes are or should be. We hear, the commissioner from the Tenth Ward has requested that a hydrant be placed in front of his neighbor's house. We hear, that the Tenth Ward has been receiving too many wire extensions and the commissioner of the Eighth Ward has just been advised by the Improvement Association that if he does not get something for the Eighth Ward, he will not be re-elected, whereupon said commissioner gets sore and does not attend meetings. And so on. It is ridiculous. Study the wasted energy in our city council meetings if you want to see an exhibition of what elective bodies exhibit. Elective bodies mean politics and politics always means unnecessary expenses.

Really, readers, not for the life of us can we see where politics should have any place in public utility boards; nor that the present members have made any more mistakes than any other three would make, but that they have done an enormous amount of work and for $50 per year have delivered expert service worth thousands of dollars. Such a board can not be duplicated. Instead of making the Water & Light Board a target of criticism we should shower it with praise and encouragement.

Oh, yes, you will say this amendment is not personal. But it is personal, and can not be anything else but personal. Show us your five men and we will put our three present men against any five you can produce. If you are not criticizing the record and performances of the present three men, why the amendment. Kill it, and bury it deeply.

George A. Tracy has purchased the insurance agency owned by E. E. Blackledge, which was formerly conducted under the firm name of Johnson & Blackledge, in the Iron Exchange building.

This consolidation gives Mr. Tracy one of the largest insurance agencies in the state, outside of the Twin Cities and Duluth, and makes him the personal representative of companies having assets of over four hundred million dollars.

In making this addition to his office, Mr. Tracy is exhibiting his faith in the future of Brainerd. He started in the insurance business about eight years ago, representing but one company. Today he is the agent for eighteen companies, representing every kind of insurance and protection that is written.

He will specialize on fire, life, windstorm, accident, automobile, public liability, boiler and plate glass insurance. His companies are among the largest and best that can be offered to the insurance public, and ranks him among the foremost agents in this section.

OTHER PEOPLES OPINIONS
THE COAL SITUATION

Information given to the Dispatch, by W. V. Turcotte of Turcotte Bros., To the Editor of the Dispatch:

This time of the year we hear people talking about coal, lying about coal, cussing the coal operator and all men in the coal business, so I thought that to defend ourselves, I would write a few words to be published in your paper.

In the first place we have had a very hard time getting any hard coal, and the word has been passed around Brainerd, that when we did get it, that the price would be from $22 to $25. People like to spread news of this kind, and I thought it would be a good time to stop all such rumors, so will say that we will sell hard coal next week for $17.75, delivered in the basement. In my endeavor to secure this coal, knowing that the citizens of Brainerd must have it, I have spent a great deal of time and money in travelling to Minneapolis, and Duluth, and telephoning the different dock companies, and at last have secured assurance of a few cars.

The soft coal situation is somewhat different. We expected to be able last spring to deliver to our customers this fall, soft coal at from $9 to $10, but on account of the strikes in the mines for five months, this took a decided change, and we are obliged to ask our customers $14.50 per ton for soft coal, $15.50 for all briquettes, and $15.50 for Kentucky Lump, Kentucky Stove and Pocahontas coal.

Last year at this time there were some eight million tons of coal at Duluth and Superior and today they have in the neighborhood of only one million tons, although they expect before the navigation closes that there will be plenty of soft coal for the Northwest. My personal opinion is don't expect any reduction in price.

Only "Failure" That Is True.
I'm proof against that word "failure." I've seen behind it. The only failure a man ought to fear is failure in cleaving to the purpose he sees to be best.—George Elliot.

ENLARGES AGENCY

Has Purchased the Insurance Business Owned by E. E. Blackledge of Iron Exchange Building

HE NOW HAS 18 COMPANIES

Mr. Tracy Started in Business Eight Years Ago and Shows Faith in City's Future

George A. Tracy has purchased the insurance agency owned by E. E. Blackledge, which was formerly conducted under the firm name of Johnson & Blackledge, in the Iron Exchange building.

This consolidation gives Mr. Tracy one of the largest insurance agencies in the state, outside of the Twin Cities and Duluth, and makes him the personal representative of companies having assets of over four hundred million dollars.

In making this addition to his office, Mr. Tracy is exhibiting his faith in the future of Brainerd. He started in the insurance business about eight years ago, representing but one company. Today he is the agent for eighteen companies, representing every kind of insurance and protection that is written.

He will specialize on fire, life, windstorm, accident, automobile, public liability, boiler and plate glass insurance. His companies are among the largest and best that can be offered to the insurance public, and ranks him among the foremost agents in this section.

Mr. Tracy appreciates the confidence that has been placed in his agency in the past, and believes that this feeling will continue to manifest itself in the future.

OTHER PEOPLES OPINIONS

THE COAL SITUATION

Information given to the Dispatch, by W. V. Turcotte of Turcotte Bros.: To the Editor of the Dispatch:

This time of the year we hear people talking about coal, lying about coal, cussing the coal operator and all men in the coal business, so I thought that to defend ourselves, I would write a few words to be published in your paper.

In the first place we have had a very hard time getting any hard coal, and the word has been passed around Brainerd, that when we did get it, that the price would be from $22 to $25. People like to spread news of this kind, and I thought it would be a good time to stop all such rumors, so will say that we will sell hard coal next week for $17.75, delivered in the basement. In my endeavor to secure this coal, knowing that the citizens of Brainerd must have it, I have spent a great deal of time and money in traveling to Minneapolis, and Duluth, and telephoning the different dock companies, and at last I have secured assurance of a few cars.

The soft coal situation is somewhat different. We expected to be able last spring to deliver to our customers this fall, soft coal at from $9 to $10, but on account of the strikes in the mines for five months, this took a decided change, and we are obliged to ask our customers $14.50 per ton for soft coal, $15.50 for all briquets, and $15.50 for Kentucky Lump, Kentucky Stove and Pocahontas coal.

Last year at this time there were some eight million tons of coal at Duluth and Superior and today they have in the neighborhood of only one million tons, although they expect before the navigation closes that there will be plenty of soft coal for the Northwest. My personal opinion is don't expect any reduction in price.

Only "Failure" That Is True.
I'm proof against that word "failure." I've seen behind it. The only failure a man ought to fear is failure in cleaving to the purpose he sees to be best.—George Elliot.

Prizes In the Cake

Do you remember the birthday cake we had last year? Do you remember what a large one it was? Do you remember the day we cut our cake and gave every woman visiting our store a piece of it? Were you one of those lucky enough to secure one of the prizes? Perhaps you failed to secure a prize last year but perhaps you will receive a prize this year. The cake will be cut on Saturday, October 28th. A number of small metal pieces will be placed in the cake each one calling for a prize. It costs you nothing to get a piece of cake—come in, join with us in our celebration, get a piece of cake and perchance you will receive a prize or a $5.00 gold piece. Remember the date.

Gossard Corsets

With the return to the wearing of corsets women are thinking of Gossard corsets. Their high reputation, most ably sustained, for style and service suggests to women the most practical garment to wear.

We suggest to women that they phone for an appointment for a fitting. Thus we give you the better service.

Our Garment Section Offers You Style and Service

Our Coats

The season offers much beauty and also most practical coats this season. These various types makes it possible for all to find a coat just to their liking. Prices too, are lower than they were last season.

Luxurious Coats

It is a real delight to see the coats of soft luxurious cloths, trimmed with the comfortable looking and comfort giving furs. These are lined with soft silks and crepes. A woman truly feels dressed up in these garments.

The Small Woman

Our Peggy Paris coats for little women solves that problem so vexing for the little woman. These fit the little women most perfectly.

Mannish Coats

This is the coat for service. Mostly made of double faced cloths of good heavy weight. Some are made with fur collars others with collars of self materials. They are demanded by girls and those wanting very warm garments.

Little Ladies Coats

We refer to those 10, 12 and 14 years of age. We gave particular attention to these garments. The result? You must see them to appreciate their beauty. Most reasonably priced too.

Our $1 Silk Hose

No article we have ever offered has been more popular than our $1.00 silk and fibre-hosiery. First it has a wonderfully fine appearance. It is not easily detected from higher priced qualities. Then it does wear. No complaints on this. We received more of the original qualities today.

Cadet School Hosiery

We have experimented with a number of brands of hosiery, but have found none to equal the "Cadet" for hard wear which at the same time is a presentable quality. These are made for service and give it. Mothers, try a pair for the boy or girl.

Our Dresses

Never were dresses more popular. And why should they not be? Most practical in style as well as extremely pretty. Materials of good serviceable crepes or, in the wools, of tricelines and Poirer twills. They command attention.

The Silk Dresses

Silk dresses are not so popular because of their beauty alone. The silk crepes are so serviceable and how women do like to wear them.

The Wool Dresses

How these dresses do please. The neat trimmings used this year cause immediate favor for there is just enough used to make them wanted. And too, reasonable in price.

Sweaters

Have you ever seen so many sweaters worn as there are this year? Have you ever seen prettier sweaters? They seem almost too pretty to call them sweaters. It is surely an inappropriate name for so delightful a garment. They are being purchased freely and we have just replenished our stock with some most attractive ones priced from $3.39 to $5.95. Of course you'll come in and see them.

Our New Shirts

The novelty skirt is still the skirt of the day. They have changed the patterns of the cloths and the result is that even prettier skirts are being shown. We added some more to our stock this week. Will you see them?

Pretty Silk Dress Materials

Have you given careful consideration to the softness and the beauty of the crepes for dresses? Have you noticed how beautifully these materials drape? And the colorings. Even the black is radiant. Materials were never prettier. We shall be pleased to have you see them.

Bloomers

We have just replenished our showing of women's bloomers. This includes both short and long and the less expensive selling at $1.00 as well as the better ones.

REAL FOOTBALL ON SATURDAY'S CARD

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Oct. 20.—First real football bangs of the season starts tomorrow with an attractive program.

Features of the schedule are the games between Harvard and Centre College at Cambridge and Georgia Tech and the Naval Academy at Annapolis.

Centre beat Harvard last year and the Colonels will give the Crimson a fight simply, because they teach them to fight at Centre. The Colonels, however, haven't the chance to win they had last year.

Georgia Tech probably will have an interesting time with the midshipmen. The southerners are strong for the style of depending on a strong attack for the defense, while the midshipmen are always well schooled on the defense.

Featured in the middleweight will be the game between Ohio State, former champions of the western conference, and Michigan.

In addition to its effects on the conference championship race it will be a big game because it will be the official opener for the new million-dollar Ohio stadium.

Other interesting games in the conference will be between Iowa and Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin and Minnesota and Northwestern.

Pancho Villa, the new American flyweight champion, had a tough time getting any kind of a chance in the ring.

He was unknown and the matchmakers for all the clubs didn't think much of the fighting ability of any yellow man.

Dave Driscoll, matchmaker for the Brooklyn ball club, finally put him on. "His manager kept bothering the life out of me and I decided finally the best way to get rid of him was to get his boy knocked out," Driscoll said.

"I put him on in a four round bout and he made a whale of a showing. Then I gave him a six-rounder and he became a real hit. He was good enough for twelve rounds then he became a card. The next thing he had the American title and as soon as I stage the fight with Jimmy Wilde, he'll be the world's champion."

For several years the International League club owners have been yelping for the breaking up of the Baltimore club, said to be a major league team in a minor league.

Baltimore sort of denied the allegations by going out and losing a series with the New Haven club, winners of the Eastern League, for the minor league championship of the east.

Later the Orioles turned around and won the "little world's series" from the St. Paul club, champions of the American Association.

Which gives New Haven some sort of a title.

Laughs Match Thrills in Bannison Picture

There is plenty of wholesome fun mixed up in the exciting scenes of "Oh, Johnny!", which the Betzwood Film Company will present at the Lyceum theatre tonight and Saturday. It has been the deliberate plan of Ira M. Lowry, who directed the production, to supply a laugh with every thrill.

For instance, the way in which Johnny Burke fools the men who tried to find out the secret of his mine is as original and ridiculous as it is dramatic. Bryson, the stock promoter, engages a Mexican half-breed and two confederates to track Johnny on his way to the mine. Johnny observes that he is being followed. He gets off his horse, hides it and climbs a tree the largest branch of which overhangs the trail. He takes his rope and, as the half-breed rides under, drops the noose over his shoulders. Then taking hold of the rope by the other end, Johnny jumps down and his weight carries the greaser up into the branches.

LOUIS BANNISON in OH, JOHNNY!
A Betzwood Production
Released through Goldwyn

MINNESOTA COAL SUPPLY NOT NORMAL

St. Paul, Oct. 20.—Late shipments of coal to the Northwest will have to be supplemented by rail, said Conrad Spencer, federal fuel commissioner.

Ivan Bowen, state fuel administrator, said Minnesota is still 50 per cent from its normal supply of coal for the winter.

McCurtain, Okla., Oct. 20.—Eight miners were killed and four seriously injured in an explosion at the Progressive Coal Co., near here, today. The workers were entombed following the blast. Rescue squads got them out shortly after, but eight were already dead. The four are so badly injured, said physicians, that they have but slight chance for recovery.

Proposed Amendments to the Constitution of the State of Minnesota

Submitted by the Legislature at its General Session, 1921, to the People of Minnesota at the General 1922 Election Together with Statements of Purpose and Effect of each

Prepared by
CLIFFORD L. HILTON
Attorney-General of Minnesota.

Addressed to
MIKE HOLM
Secretary of State.

ST. PAUL, MINNESOTA,
OFFICE OF ATTORNEY GENERAL,
June 30, 1922.

HONORABLE MIKE HOLM,
Secretary of State,
Capitol.

SIR: As required by section 44, General Statutes of the state of Minnesota for the year 1913, I have the honor to furnish you, herewith, a statement of the purposes and effects of all amendments proposed to the constitution of the state of Minnesota by the legislature of 1921 and which are to be submitted to the electors of said state at the general election in 1922.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. ONE
Chapter 528, Session Laws of Minnesota for the year 1921, proposes an amendment to section 10 of article 3 of the constitution of said state. Said section now reads as follows:

"The credit of the state shall never be given or loaned in aid of any individual, association or corporation. Nor shall there be any further issue of bonds denominated Minnesota state railroad bonds, under what purports to be an amendment to section ten of article nine, of the constitution, adopted April 15, 1858, which is hereby expunged from the constitution, saving, excepting and reserving to the state, nevertheless, all rights, remedies and forfeitures accruing under said amendment."

If amended, said section will read as follows:

"The credit of the state shall never be given or loaned in aid of any individual, association or corporation, except as hereinafter provided. Nor shall there be any further issue of bonds denominated Minnesota State Railroad Bonds, under what purports to be an amendment to section 10 of article 9 of the constitution, adopted April 15, 1858, which is hereby expunged from the constitution, saving, excepting and reserving to the state, nevertheless, all rights, remedies and forfeitures accruing under said amendment. However, that for the purpose of developing the agricultural resources of the state, the state may establish and maintain a system of rural credit, and thereby loan money and extend credit to the people of the state upon real estate security in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by law, and to issue and negotiate bonds to provide money to be so loaned. The limit of the indebtedness contained in section 5 of this article shall not apply to the provisions of this section, and the purposes for which the credit of the state or the aforesaid municipal subdivisions thereof may be given or loaned as here provided are declared to be public purposes."

The PURPOSE of said amendment is to develop the agricultural resources of the state by authorizing the lending of money and credit of the state to the people upon real estate security.

The EFFECT of said amendment, if adopted, will be to authorize the enactment of laws by the legislature for the establishment and maintenance of a system of rural credits. The legislature will be empowered to provide money by the issuance and negotiation of bonds of the state to be loaned upon real estate security to the people of the state, and will be enabled to prescribe the terms and conditions upon which such money may be lent and such credit extended. There will be no limit of indebtedness in this respect, and the state will be enabled to issue and negotiate as many bonds for this purpose as it deems advisable.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. TWO
Chapter 528, Session Laws of Minnesota for the year 1921, proposes an amendment to the constitution of the state of Minnesota by adding a new section to article 9, to be known as section 1A, to read as follows:

"Every person, co-partnership, company, joint stock company, corporation, or association, however or for whatever purpose organized, engaged in the business of mining or producing iron ore or other ores in this state, shall pay to the state of Minnesota an occupation tax on the value of all ores mined or produced, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes provided by law, to be due and payable from such person, co-partnership, company, joint stock company, corporation or association, however or for whatever purpose organized, on May first of the calendar year next following the mining or producing thereof. The valuation of ore for the purpose of determining the amount of tax to be paid shall be ascertained in the manner and method provided by law. Funds derived from the tax herein provided for shall be apportioned: fifty per cent to the state general revenue fund, forty per cent to the permanent school fund and ten per cent to the permanent university fund. The legislature shall by law make the necessary provisions for carrying out the provisions of this section."

The PURPOSE of said amendment is to direct the legislature of the state of Minnesota to impose and to keep in effect an occupation tax upon those engaged in the business of mining or producing iron ore or other ores in this state, in addition to other taxes imposed by law, at a rate, based upon the valuation of the ore produced, to be determined by the legislature and to provide for the proportionate distribution of such taxes to the general revenue fund, the permanent school fund, and the permanent university fund.

The EFFECT of the amendment, if adopted, will be to direct the legislature to impose and keep in effect such a tax upon those engaged in said business; and to require that the proceeds of such taxes shall be distributed in the manner following, to-wit: fifty per cent to the state general revenue fund, forty per cent to the permanent school fund, and ten per cent to the permanent university fund.

Yours respectfully,
CLIFFORD L. HILTON,
Attorney General.

"My brother got so bad with stomach and liver trouble that when I saw him after a year I didn't know him. He was emaciated and yellow as a pumpkin and was often in great pain. He couldn't have lived long the way he was going. Doctors and medicine gave him no relief. I picked up a little booklet on Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which he said described his case perfectly. The first dose of it gave him great relief and in a month he was good as ever." REAL FOOTBALL ON SATURDAY'S CARD

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Oct. 20.—First real football bangs of the season starts tomorrow with an attractive program.

Features of the schedule are the games between Harvard and Centre College at Cambridge and Georgia Tech and the Naval Academy at Annapolis.

Centre beat Harvard last year and the Colonels will give the Crimson a fight simply, because they teach them to fight at Centre. The Colonels, however, haven't the chance to win they had last year.

Georgia Tech probably will have an interesting time with the midshipmen. The southerners are strong for the style of depending on a strong attack for the defense, while the midshipmen are always well schooled on the defense.

Featured in the middlewest will be the game between Ohio State, former champions of the western conference, and Michigan.

In addition to its effects on the conference championship race it will be a big game because it will be the official opener for the new million-dollar Ohio stadium.

Other interesting games in the conference will be between Iowa and Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin and Minnesota and Northwestern.

Pancho Villa, the new American flyweight champion, had a tough time getting any kind of a chance in the ring.

He was unknown and the matchmakers for all the clubs didn't think much of the fighting ability of any yellow man.

Dave Driscoll, matchmaker for the Brooklyn ball club, finally put him on. "His manager kept bothering the life out of me and I decided finally the best way to get rid of him was to get his boy knocked out," Driscoll said.

"I put him on in a four round bout and he made a whale of a showing. Then I gave him a six-rounder and he became a real hit. He was good enough for twelve rounds then he became a card. The next thing he had the American title and as soon as I stage the fight with Jimmy Wilde, he'll be the world's champion."

For several years the International League club owners have been yelping for the breaking up of the Baltimore club, said to be a major league team in a minor league.

Baltimore sort of denied the allegations by going out and losing a series with the New Haven club, winners of the Eastern League, for the minor league championship of the east.

Later the Orioles turned around and won the "little world's series" from the St. Paul club, champions of the American Association.

Which gives New Haven some sort of a title.

Laughs Match Thrills in Bannison Picture

There is plenty of wholesome fun mixed up in the exciting scenes of "Oh, Johnny!", which the Betzwood Film Company will present at the Lyceum theatre tonight and Saturday. It has been the deliberate plan of Ira M. Lowry, who directed the production, to supply a laugh with every thrill.

For instance, the way in which Johnny Burke fools the men who tried to find out the secret of his mine is as original and ridiculous as it is dramatic. Bryson, the stock promoter, engages a Mexican half-breed and two confederates to track Johnny on his way to the mine. Johnny observes that he is being followed. He gets off his horse, hides it and climbs a tree the largest branch of which overhangs the trail. He takes his rope and, as the half-breed rides under, drops the noose over his shoulders. Then taking hold of the rope by the other end, Johnny jumps down and his weight carries the greaser up into the branches.

LOUIS BANNISON in OH, JOHNNY!
A Betzwood Production
Released through Goldwyn

MINNESOTA COAL SUPPLY NOT NORMAL

St. Paul, Oct. 20.—Late shipments of coal to the Northwest will have to be supplemented by rail, said Conrad Spencer, federal fuel commissioner.

Ivan Bowen, state fuel administrator, said Minnesota is still 50 per cent from its normal supply of coal for the winter.

McCurran, Okla., Oct. 20.—Eight miners were killed and four seriously injured in an explosion at the Progressive Coal Co., near here, today. The workers were entombed following the blast. Rescue squads got them out shortly after, but eight were already dead. The four are so badly injured, said physicians, that they have but slight chance for recovery.

Proposed Amendments to the Constitution of the State of Minnesota

Submitted by the Legislature at its General Session, 1921, to the People of Minnesota at the General 1922 Election Together with Statements of Purpose and Effect of each

Prepared by
CLIFFORD L. HILTON
Attorney-General of Minnesota.

Addressed to
MIKE HOLM
Secretary of State.

ST. PAUL, MINNESOTA, OFFICE OF ATTORNEY GENERAL, June 30, 1922.
HONORABLE MIKE HOLM, Secretary of State, Capitol.

SIR: As required by section 45, General Statutes of the state of Minnesota for the year 1921, I have the honor to furnish you, herewith, a statement of the purposes and effects of all amendments proposed to the constitution of the state of Minnesota by the legislature of 1921 and which are to be submitted to the electors of said state at the general election in 1922.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. ONE
Chapter 528, Session Laws of Minnesota for the year 1921 proposes an amendment to section 10 of article 9 of the constitution of said state. Said section now reads as follows:

"The credit of the state shall never be given or loaned in aid of any individual, association or corporation. Nor shall there be any further issue of bonds denominated 'Minnesota railroad bonds,' under what purports to be an amendment to section ten of article nine, of the constitution, adopted April 15, 1858, which is hereby expunged from the constitution, saving, excepting and reserving to the state, nevertheless, all rights, remedies and forfeitures accruing under said amendment."

If amended, said section will read as follows:

"The credit of the state shall never be given or loaned in aid of any individual, association or corporation, except as hereafter provided. Nor shall there be any further issue of bonds denominated 'Minnesota State Railroad Bonds' under what purports to be an amendment to section 10 of article 9 of the constitution, adopted April 15, 1858, which is hereby expunged from the constitution, saving, excepting and reserving to the state, nevertheless, all rights, remedies and forfeitures accruing under said amendment. Provided, however, that for the purpose of developing the agricultural resources of the state, the state may establish and maintain a system of rural credits and thereby loan money and extend credit to the people of the state upon real estate security in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by law, and to issue and negotiate bonds to provide money to be so loaned. The limit of indebtedness incurred in the exercise of the authority shall not apply to the provisions of this section, and the purposes for which the credit of the state or the aforesaid municipal subdivisions thereof may be given or loaned as herein provided are declared to be public purposes."

THE PURPOSE of said amendment is to develop the agricultural resources of the state by authorizing the lending of money and credit of the state to the people upon real estate security.

THE EFFECT of said amendment, if adopted, will be to authorize the enactment of laws by the legislature for the establishment and maintenance of a system of rural credits. The legislature will be empowered to provide money by the issuance and negotiation of bonds of the state to be loaned upon real estate security to the people of the state, and will be enabled to prescribe the terms and conditions upon which such money may be lent and such credit extended. There will be no limit of indebtedness in this respect, and the state will be enabled to issue and negotiate as many bonds for this purpose as it deems advisable.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. TWO
Chapter 529, Session Laws of Minnesota for the year 1921, proposes an amendment to the constitution of the state of Minnesota by adding a new section to article 9 to be known as section 1A, to read as follows:

"Every person, co-partnership, company, joint stock company, corporation, or association, however or for whatever purpose organized, engaged in the business of mining or producing iron ore or other ores in this state, shall pay to the state of Minnesota, as an occupation tax on the valuation of all ores mined or produced, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes provided by law, said tax to be due and payable from such person, co-partnership, company, joint stock company, corporation or association, however or for whatever purpose organized, on May first of the calendar year next following the mining or producing thereof. The valuation of ore for the purpose of determining the amount of tax to be paid shall be ascertained in the manner and method provided by law. Funds derived from the tax herein provided for shall be apportioned: fifty per cent to the state general revenue fund, forty per cent to the permanent school fund and ten per cent to the permanent university fund. The legislature shall by law make the necessary provisions for carrying out the provisions of this section."

THE PURPOSE of said amendment is to direct the legislature of the state of Minnesota to impose and to keep in effect an occupation tax upon those engaged in the business of mining or producing iron ore or other ores in this state, in addition to other taxes imposed by law, at a rate, based upon the valuation of the ore produced, to be determined by the legislature and to provide for the proportionate distribution of such taxes to the general revenue fund, the permanent school fund, and the permanent university fund.

THE EFFECT of the amendment, if adopted, will be to direct the legislature to impose and keep in effect such a tax upon those engaged in said business; and to require that the proceeds of such tax as shall be distributed in the manner following, to-wit: fifty per cent to the state general revenue fund, forty per cent to the permanent school fund, and ten per cent to the permanent university fund.

Yours respectfully,
CLIFFORD L. HILTON,
Attorney General.

Didn't Know His Brother

"My brother got so bad with stomach and liver trouble that when I saw him after a year I didn't know him. He was emaciated and yellow as a pumpkin and was often in great pain. He couldn't have lived long the way he was going. Doctors and medicine gave him no relief. I picked up a little booklet on Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which he said described his case perfectly. The first dose of it gave him great relief and in a month he was good as ever." It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Johnson Pharmacy and all leading druggists. Advt.
